ORR PARTNERS ANNOUNCES PROMOTION OF JIM WHALEN AND MICHAEL OLLINGER

Reston, VA (March 24, 2014) – Orr Partners, an industry leader in project management and owner's representation services, has announced the promotions of Jim Whalen and Michael Ollinger to Assistant Vice President. "The promotions of Jim and Michael are a continuation of our expansion plans and our effort to recognize the leaders in our company," remarked Scott Siegel, President. "As our firm continues to grow, we will rely on proven professionals like Jim and Mike to support our mission and company objectives."

Mr. Whalen will continue to service key accounts and will be responsible for the growth and development of junior staff working with him. "Jim is known by his clients for his attention to detail and his ability to fully integrate with his customers," said Mr. Siegel. "No one works harder to understand and satisfy his client's needs." Mr. Whalen, with a BA in business administration and finance from Mary Washington College, has been with Orr Partners for 13 years and has worked on several key accounts including George Mason University, FDIC, Georgetown Prep and Gulfstream.

Mr. Ollinger has been with Orr Partners for nearly four years and is presently on a team managing two large, mixed-use projects in Rockville, Maryland. Michael has work on several large accounts for Orr Partners, including Electric Boat, Stratford University and George Mason University. "Michael is a rising star with a strong work ethic and great understanding of the real estate development process," commented Mr. Siegel. "Michael has a bright future with our firm." Mr. Ollinger has a BA in business from the University of Virginia and a Master's in real estate from Georgetown University.
