

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASEMARCH MADNESS

Reston, VA (March 28, 2016) — Senior Project Manager Michael Ollinger has clinched the 2016 Orr Partners' March Madness Bracket Challenge, prior to the final four games. In a sea of shattered brackets, Michael was able to navigate his team to the top of a less than stellar field, in which no participant has a single team remaining in the final four. "I'm still proud of this achievement," said Michael. "No one can ever take it away." It has been suggested among the staff that no one in their right mind would want to take it away. Runner-up for the second year in a row, Orr President Scott Siegel stated, "It's great to see a rising star, like Michael, make the most out of an upset filled tournament." In addition to a cash prize, Michael takes home the admiration of his peers and a heightened level of respect in the office.
