Orr's Yelp Project Wins Award

Reston, VA (June 1, 2018) – Orr Partners delivered project management services for an award winning project for Yelp, one of the world's leading social media companies. The new Yelp Office at Terrell Place received the award for Leasing Transaction of the Year in Washington, DC from the Commercial Real Estate Brokerage Association (CREBA) of Greater Washington, DC and is under consideration for multiple design awards. The 52,000 SF project was designed, permitted and constructed in just over six months in 2017. "This was a super-fast track project that was executed to perfection," noted Scott Siegel, President of Orr Partners. "The team of Yelp, Orr, OTJ, Hitt and CBRE Brokerage worked exceptionally well together and really rallied to make the project a success," he added.

ABOUT CREBA

The mission of CREBA is to advance the Commercial Real Estate Brokerage profession in the Greater Washington, DC area by serving its members through education, networking and recognition. The CREBA Annual Awards competition is open exclusively to CREBA members. The awards recognize remarkable sales and leasing performance. For additional information on CREBA, visit www.creba.org.
