

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASECONTINUING TO GO GREEN

Reston, VA (December 2, 2016) – Orr Partners has added another LEED accredited team member to its already deep bench of LEED professionals. Assistant Project Manager Kerem Demirci successfully passed his LEED Green Associate exam and is now a LEED Green Associate. “Kerem is one of the bright, young, rising stars of our firm,” commented Scott Siegel, President of Orr. “His incredible work ethic and attention to detail has immediately endeared him to our staff and clients.” Kerem sees his LEED credentials as an important part of his desire to have a positive impact on his community. “I’ve always understood the importance of respecting the environment and the LEED training enhanced my ability to make a difference in the projects I manage,” stated Kerem.

ABOUT KEREM DEMIRCI

Kerem is an Assistant Project Manager, working on several large mixed-use projects for Orr Partners. A graduate of Penn State, with distinction, Kerem had three years of experience with a large general contractor before joining Orr. In his short tenure with Orr, Kerem has established a great reputation as a detail-oriented, hardworking team member. Kerem is also a standout volleyball player, and served as a practice player for Penn State’s national championship women’s volleyball team.
