National Children's Museum Grand Opening On Friday

Reston, VA (December 11, 2012) — David Orr, president of Orr Partners, Northern Virginia's leading provider of owner's representation services is pleased to announce the grand opening of the National Children's Museum, for which Orr Partners provided owner representation services, at its new location at National Harbor, Maryland at 10 a.m. on Fri., Dec. 14, 2012.

"We are delighted to be part of the National Children's Museum's grand opening. From the start, we wanted to make sure the new space would be a highly functional and educational experience, but more importantly, we wanted it to be the fun and interactive destination that children and their families seek," said Orr.

"Orr Partners has long been associated with the National Children's Museum and has earned our trust and confidence," said Willard Whitson, Museum President & CEO. "We have always felt the project was being managed with our interests foremost in the minds of David Orr and his team. They are part of the Museum's family."

The 23,000 square foot project, which represents the first phase of the museum, took 12 months to complete. Orr Partners provided comprehensive real estate services including overseeing the budget and schedule, design and permits as well as all technology vendors and other museum-specific vendors. Orr Partners also worked diligently with various county and regional representatives to ensure that permitting and funding were properly managed. In addition, Orr worked with various museum staff, committees and boards to maximize internal and external coordination that led to such a successful outcome.
