Orr Partners Announces Promotion of Kerem Demirci

Reston, VA (December 12, 2017) – Orr Partners, an industry leader in project management and owner’s representation services, has announced the promotion of Kerem Demirci to Project Manager. “Kerem’s growth has been tremendous and it is attributable to his extraordinary work ethic and the pride he takes in his work,” remarked Scott Siegel, President. “We and our clients are fortunate to have him on our team.”

In his new role, Mr. Demirci will lead day-to-day project management teams for multiple Orr projects. “I am excited for this opportunity to take on more responsibility and continue adding value to our clients,” commented Mr. Demirci.

ABOUT KEREM DEMIRCI

Kerem is a Project Manager working on several large mixed-use projects for Orr Partners. Kerem holds Bachelor’s and Master’s degrees from Penn State’s Architectural Engineering program and is currently pursuing a Master’s degree from Georgetown University in Real Estate Finance. Kerem had three years of experience with a large general contractor before joining Orr. In his year and a half with Orr, Kerem has established a great reputation as a detail-oriented, hardworking team member. Kerem is also a standout volleyball player, and served as a practice player for Penn State’s national championship women’s volleyball team.
