Centro Arlington Mixed-Use Development Underway

Reston, VA (March 15, 2018) – Orr Partners, a leading real estate developer in the Washington metro area, is making significant progress on construction of Centro Arlington (formerly Village Center). The project has obtained a Footing to Grade Permit and the first of two tower cranes has been erected on site at the corner of Columbia Pike and George Mason Drive in Arlington, Virginia.

Centro Arlington is a mixed-use project that includes 366 residential units with 80,000 SF of retail space. Harris Teeter will anchor the retail center, which will include a public plaza with a water element, public art and other public amenities. When completed, it will be a six-story structure over concrete podium with two floors of below grade parking.

“Centro is responding to the call for the next edgy, artsy, cost-effective, convenient neighborhood in Arlington that’s a stone’s throw to DC,” explained David Orr, Chairman. “We are carefully curating our design and retailers to create an environment that will compete with anything in the area. You’ll want to come here to have a cup of coffee, see the art and water, and relax in the green oasis.”
