Orr Partners Announces Exciting New Campus for Stratford University

Company led innovative creation of key facilities for academic programs

Reston, VA (June 1, 2012) — David Orr, president of Orr Partners, Northern Virginia's leading provider of owner's representation services, is pleased to announce that renovations are complete at Stratford University in Newport News, Va.

“With less than six months to meet a critical deadline to accommodate students for the summer 2012 session, I am particularly proud of how we successfully completed the project on schedule and within budget,” said Orr.

Orr Partners assisted in the lease negotiation, and provided design and project management services for the 62,000 square foot renovation of a big-box retail store into a full-service campus for Stratford University. Key focal points of the design included not only administrative offices, traditional lecture halls and classrooms, but also customized learning environments for culinary arts and healthcare management academic programs.

Orr Partners LLC celebrates 25 years as the leading provider of owner's representation services. Specializing in complex project management, Orr Partners provides services for a diverse client base in multiple disciplines including education, religious, medical, healthcare, corporate tenant improvements and government work.
